

Project Description

Kemet Travel is a branding and marketing project for an Egyptian tourism company that reintroduces Egypt through a modern visual identity inspired by its rich heritage. The project includes a complete brand identity, stationery, promotional materials, social media campaign, travel planner, magazine, and branded applications. Its goal is to showcase Egypt as a diverse destination filled with history, culture, and unforgettable travel experiences.